Mall Media Inc. has been informing, connecting and supplying shopping center professionals since 1980. A member and media partner of ICSC, it operates Mall Media Kids, the world's leading supplier of personalized seasonal giveaways, and also publishes Tactics Magazine, Marketing Trendz and Shopping Center Weekly, trusted global retail marketing and management trade publications. Access them all from the Mall Media Hub.

Are You an Industry Insider

With any booking of a banner ad on the Tactics Online website homepage or a full-page display ad in one of the quarterly special print editions of Tactics Magazine, you will receive the opportunity to place your own advertorial profile page on the Mall Media Hub for free.

Advertorials offer an ideal platform for you to (re)introduce yourself as an industry insider to the shopping center industry worldwide, while giving general managers and marketers the additional information they need to begin the process of outsourcing key aspects of their strategic planning.

Advertorials make the most of the interactive nature of the Web, with links to your company's website, e-mail addresses, multimedia content and social media pages. They also relate to the broad topics that we will focus on in each special print edition of Tactics, and act as extensions of our annual Shopping Center Resource Directory, which incidentally is now accessible year-round and is fully searchable on our Tactics Online news website.

In addition to the advertorial offer, Tactics advertisers will also receive promotional space of equal dollar value to their magazine booking on our Shopping Center Weekly e-newsletter. Shopping Center Weekly is distributed to virtually every major mall in Canada, the USA, Australia, and Europe. Our monthly circulation is 29,200 (7,300 per week).

TACTICS MAGAZINE

The Global News Source for Shopping Center Professionals

7,300 WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS • 29,200 READERS EVERY MONTH

Recognized since 25 years as the industry's leading trade publication with a strong marketing focus, Tactics has expanded its content to share strategies relating to other aspects of shopping center business, including leasing, center management and maintenance, property development, retail store operation and promotion, professional development, and more. That's in addition to continued coverage of advertising campaigns, seasonal programs, sales promotions and events, technology-based initiatives, and other marketing strategies.

Tactics Magazine – Website, Print Edition and App

Tactics Magazine recently launched online to deliver daily news posts and weekly articles on its new Web platform. It also offers a free app for iOS and Android devices, and prints quarterly special editions focused on Visual Merchandising, Holiday Programs, Retail Technology, and Shopping Center Business.

The magazine is designed to assist professionals who are responsible for marketing and managing shopping malls, open-air centers, lifestyle and town centers, outlet centers, and retail parks.

Our readership, which ranges from property-based managers to senior corporate executives, has proven purchasing powers across all areas of shopping center management—creative design, media planning, leasing, market research, décor, sales promotion and events, digital marketing, operations, maintenance, sustainability upgrades, and customer service.

If you are serious about targeting this very lucrative pool of decision makers, advertising in the online and print editions of Tactics Magazine is your best option. Click here to take a video tour of Tactics.
